

GU's English School Teacher, Socheata Sek

Socheata Sek is 16 years old. She lives in Chambok village, Putsor commune, Bati district, Takeo province. She is studying in grade 11 at Sok An Tunle Bati High School.

She has worked as an English teacher since 2016.

There are 21 students in her class.

She has been a student of GU English since she was 8 years old. Socheata really enjoyed learning English and decided that she wanted to help other students in her community by teaching them English too.

She joined four workshops in 2016, which were organized by GU and learnt about classroom management, teaching English, environmental awareness & social impact, and girl's health.

Socheata is also one of the leaders in the Generation. Education. Period. Project and has been an integral part of spreading information about periods and GEP sanitary napkin kits.

Socheata said, "Since I taught English at GU's English school, I have learned lots of new skills and knowledge and had many new experiences. I have developed my confidence and feel very responsible for my work. I am happy to see there are many children in this community that know me, and I have also made a lot of new friends; Cambodian and foreigners too".

